

Who are missing children?

Children who get separated from their parents and families are called 'missing children'. Additionally, following children are also categorised under missing children:

Procedures followed by police in case of missing children:

In case a missing child is found, please contact:

- Childline: 1098
- Police: 100
- District Child Protection Unit