

A new direction that gives nutrition and education to every child

Sponsorship helps in improving the quality of living by providing for medical, nutritional, educational and other needs of the children

Children whose mothers have been widowed, divorced or abandoned by families

Orphaned children living with displaced families

Children whose parents are suffering from life-threatening diseases

Children whose parents are disabled due to accidents or calamities

For sponsoring a child, contact the District Child Protection Unit