Juvenile Justice Board

We are guilty of many errors and many faults, but our worst crime is abandoning the children, neglecting the fountain of life. Many of the things we need can wait. The child cannot. Right now is the time his bones are being formed, his blood is being developed. To him we cannot answer 'Tomorrow,' his name is today.

- Gabriela Mistral

Overview

The Juvenile Justice Act provides for the setting up of one or more Juvenile Justice Boards (JJBs) for exercising the powers and discharging its functions relating to children in conflict with law (CCL). This module talks in detail about the composition of JJB and the role that it plays from the time when the child alleged to be in conflict with law is produced before the Board for the first time till the case is disposed. The section also touches upon the key changes that have been brought about in the JJ Act, 2015 with respect to the categories of offences by children and the prescribed provisions to deal with such cases.

At the end of this section few exercises and case studies are given for the readers/ participants along with a note for the facilitator.

Objectives:

- At the end of the session, participants will be able to describe
- ◆ The structure and composition of JJB
 - ◆ Procedure in relation to JJB
 - ◆ Powers, functions and responsibilities of JJB

(Facilitator can use the given link to show video on JJB) <http://haqcrc.org/additional-resources/abyss-documentary-juvenile-justice-act-2015/>

One of the principal roles of the Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Act 2015 is to 'provide specialised and preventive treatment services for children and young persons as a means of 'secondary prevention, rehabilitation and improved socialisation'.¹

Definition of "Child in Conflict with Law" – the Confusions

A child who is alleged or found to have committed an offence and who has not completed the 18th year of age on the date of commission of such offence is considered a "Child in Conflict with Law" Sec. 2 (13).

For determining applicability of JJ Act over a person, relevant date is "Date of Commission of Offence". Considerable confusion arises in dealing with cases where a person who was a child at the time of commission of offence but turns adult subsequently.

Section 5 and Section 6 of the JJ Act 2015 deal with situations where:

- (1) a child completes the age of 18 years during the pendency of inquiry and
- (2) a person is apprehended for committing an offence when such person was below the age of 18 years.

The law is abundantly clear that persons mentioned above shall continue to be treated as children and orders will be passed as if such person continues to be a child, irrespective of such person having turned adult. Additionally, there is confusion regarding the placement of a person or a child - who may have crossed the age of 18 years at the time of apprehension or in the course of the inquiry - in an institution.

The JJ Act is very clear on this. It states (u/s 49) that for such persons or children (if apprehended after the age of 18 years) the State Government shall set up at least one place of safety in a state, duly registered under Section 41, in which such persons or children shall be placed. A CCL, who is between the age of 16 to 18 years and is accused of or convicted for committing a heinous offence shall also be placed in a Place of Safety.

Now the group will discuss internally and put down what orders can be passed for their cases. Also, the groups will present their observations and points followed by a discussion with the help of the pointers given below.

Orders regarding child found to be in conflict with law (Section 18, JJ Act 2015)

Where a Board is satisfied on inquiry that a child irrespective of age has committed a petty offence, or a serious offence, or a child below the age of 16 years has committed a heinous offence, then, based on the nature of offence, specific need for supervision or intervention, circumstances as brought out in the social investigation report and past conduct of the child, the Board may, if it so thinks fit:

1. allow the child to go home after advice or admonition by following appropriate inquiry and counselling to such child and to his parents or the guardian.
2. direct the child to participate in group counselling and similar activities.
3. order the child to perform community service under the supervision of an organisation or institution, or a specified person, persons or group of persons identified by the Board.

If the conduct and behaviour of the child has been such that, it would not be in the child's interest, or in the interest of other children housed in a Special Home, the Board may send such child to the Place of Safety.

In addition to the above orders (a) to (g) the Board may, in addition pass orders to:

- ♦ attend school or
- ♦ attend a vocational training centre or
- ♦ attend a therapeutic centre or
- ♦ prohibit the child from visiting, frequenting or appearing at a specified place or
- ♦ undergo a de-addiction programme.

Orders regarding a child not found to be in conflict with law (Section 17, JJ Act 2015)

- ♦ In case it appears to the Board that the child is in need of care and protection, it may refer the child to the Committee with appropriate directions.

Presumption and determination of age (Section 94, JJ Act 2015)

Where it is obvious to the Board, based on the appearance of the child brought before it under any of the provisions of this Act (other than for the purpose of giving evidence) that the said person is a child, the Board shall record such observation stating the age of the child as nearly as may be and proceed with the inquiry (as under Section 14 for CCL or Section 36 for CNCP, as the case may be), without waiting for further confirmation of the age.

In case the Board has reasonable grounds for doubt regarding whether the person brought before it is a child or not, the Committee or the Board, as the case may be, shall undertake the process of age determination, by seeking evidence by obtaining:

- ♦ the date of birth certificate from the school, or the matriculation or equivalent certificate from the concerned examination Board, if available; and in the absence thereof

Provided such age determination test conducted on the order of the Board shall be completed within 15 days from the date of such order. The age recorded by the Board to be the age of person so brought before it shall, for the purpose of this Act, be deemed to be the true age of that person.

Transfer of a child to place of residence (Section 95, JJ Act 2015)

If during the inquiry it is found that a child hails from a place outside its jurisdiction, the Board shall, if satisfied after due inquiry that it is in the best interest of the child and after due consultation with the Board of the child's home district, order the transfer of the child, as soon as possible, to the said Board, along with relevant documents and following the prescribed procedures.

Such transfer can be made in case of a CCL only after the inquiry has been completed and final order passed by the Board.

In case of inter-state transfer, the child shall be, if convenient, handed over to the Board of the home district of the child, or to the Board in the capital city of the home State.

Once the decision to transfer is finalised, the Board, as the case may be, shall give an escort order to the Special Juvenile Police Unit (SJPU) to escort the child, within 15 days of receiving such order.

A girl child shall be accompanied by a woman police officer.

Where a SJPU is not available, the Board, shall direct the institution where the child is temporarily staying or DCPU to provide an escort to accompany the child during travel.

The Board, on receiving the transferred child will process for restoration or rehabilitation or social re-integration, as provided in this Act.

Inspection of jails and other institutions for CCL

Conducting at least one inspection visit every month of residential facilities for CCL and recommend action for improvement in quality of services to the DCPU and the State Government.

Conducting regular inspection of jails meant for adults to check if any child is lodged in such jails and take immediate measures for transfer of such a child to the observation home.

Other functions of JJB with respect to the child brought before it

- ◆ If, at any stage during the course of an inquiry, the Committee or the Board is satisfied that the attendance of the child is not essential for the purpose of inquiry, the Committee or the Board, as the case may be, shall dispense with the attendance of a child and limit the same for the purpose of recording the statement.
- ◆ If the child is found to be suffering from a disease requiring prolonged medical treatment or physical or mental complaint that will respond to treatment, the Board may send the child to any place recognised as a Fit Facility for the required treatment.
- ◆ The Board may permit leave of absence to any child, to allow him on special occasions like examination, marriage of relatives, death of kith or kin or accident or serious illness of parent or any emergency of like nature, under supervision, for a period generally not exceeding seven days in one instance, excluding the time taken in journey.
- ◆ The Board may increase the frequency of its sittings based on recommendation of the Chief Judicial Magistrate or the Chief Metropolitan Magistrate after the review of pendency of cases of the Board once in every three months.

Procedure in relation to CCL – Role Play

Step 1: Procedure in relation to CCL – Role Play

Note for the facilitator: The purpose of the role plays is to bring out the role of JJB and their social role. More often than not, JJB as a result of being headed by a Magistrate is always focused on legal aspects. Social worker members are not adequately empowered or heard.

Split the role plays in two parts A and B respectively and see if the opinion of the participants change with the changing situation in the story. Instruct the participants to enact the role play and elicit role of JJB as per the situations enacted.

Process

Ask the participants to do a role play showing the proceedings by JJB for the CCL mentioned in the below situations. Encourage the participants to share their feedback on the proceedings enacted.

Role Play

Part A:

- ◆ Chetan is a 17 year old orphan. He was brought by the police to the JJB for a 'murder' offence, as a child who is in conflict with the law.
- ◆ Suraj is 17 years old and was caught while stealing from a grocery shop.

Part B:

- ◆ Chetan lived on the street with his younger sister. He was trying to protect his sister from a sexual predator and inadvertently killed him.
- ◆ Suraj has been caught multiple times earlier too and is part of a gang.

Important note for summarising the role plays:

The initial reaction on what should be the action is always harshest punishment for Chetan and nothing for Suraj. However the role plays build up and reveal more details about the background of the two children and their context of the crime committed.

It becomes apparent that one has to look at a lot of factors before deciding the sentence. In these two cases, the first was clearly a self-protection assault and it is evident the child is not into any criminal activity or mindset. However the second child is clearly linked with criminal gangs and unless he is made to be part of a reform process, the day will not be far when he commits serious offences as well. So what was perceived as just an admonishment and release case actually needs a lot more intervention and possibly detention to allow for reform.

These two situations and similar cases bring out the importance of the social background report and for the JJB to not be biased about cases depending on severity of crime committed.

Step 2: Provisions in law to ensure JJB members are sensitised on the law²

Under Section 4(5), the State Government is made responsible to provide induction training and sensitisation to all members including Principal Magistrate of the Board on care, protection, rehabilitation, legal provisions and justice for children, within a period of 60 days from the date of their appointment. Further, under Model Rule 89, the State Government is also required to organise regular training programmes for all stakeholders including JJB members on the implementation of the JJ Act, 2015.

Invite one volunteer to read aloud the lines given below:

When the ancient Chinese decided to live in peace, they built the Great Wall of China. During the first 100 years of its existence, Chinese were invaded thrice. The invaders never had to climb the wall, they bribed the guards and came through the doors. The Chinese built the wall but forgot character building of the guards! Thus building of human character comes BEFORE building of anything else. If you want to destroy the civilization of a nation there are three ways: Destroy the family structure, Destroy education, Lower their role models and references.

Ask the participants what learning they can draw from the above lines with respect to their roles as part of JJB. Highlight the importance of empathy, team work, talking to children, active listening, coordination and communication aspects. Encourage them to go through the facilitators guide in the smart kit for better understanding of these.

Way forward – Filling the gaps

The JJ Act 2015 covers a wide range of issues relating to children and it intersects with other laws. It is therefore imperative to also recognise that there are several schemes and programmes that will have to be drawn, to ensure that the rights of all categories of children at different levels - panchayat, block and district are not violated and also for the successful implementation of the JJ Act. The most important scheme is the Integrated Child Protection Scheme (ICPS), which was initiated as part of the 11th Five Year Plan and which is the main scheme through which the institutions/system mechanisms for implementation of the JJ Act 2015 as well as of the child protection initiatives are set up such as – DCPU, Child Line, CWC, JJB etc.

Step 1: SThe case below illustrates how JJB, CWC and DCPU have acted in close coordination trying to ensure the 'best interest of the child'.

CASE STUDY

'S', a 14-year-old, was apprehended for theft, along with a gang, when she was already five months pregnant. The JJB held an inquiry and decided that needed to be treated as a CNCP. So it ordered that be sent to CWC of the same district. The CWC, based on the social investigation report, decided that it would be in her best interest not to send back home. She had not only been inducted into the gang for stealing by her uncle, who was her guardian, but had also been subjected to sexual assault by him, leading to her pregnancy. Hence was placed in a Children's Home. The CWC, under powers vested in Section 30 of the JJ Act filed a case of sexual abuse against the uncle under the POCSO Act. It also filed a case against the uncle under the JJ Act for having inducted the child to perform crimes and illegal activities. Since it was unsafe for to have an abortion, the CWC and the Children's Home she was placed in, helped her to reach her full term of pregnancy and deliver her baby. The baby was placed for adoption following the procedure laid down in the JJ Act and continued to stay at the Children's Home with a care plan developed for her, keeping her needs in mind and linking her to the existing government schemes available to her. The counsellor with the DCPU provided the necessary psycho-social care for tide over the trauma that she had faced. The legal-cum-probationary officer of DCPU has been monitoring the case filed under POCSO to ensure that she gets justice.

Note for the facilitator: Encourage the participant to share more such instances where they have seen 'best interest of the child' being taken into consideration.

Some examples of good practices

Maximisation of available resources – Example from Deogarh, Odisha

In Deogarh district of Odisha, the District Magistrate took the initiative to converge funds and arrange for accommodation of the JJB, CWC and DCPU in the same building. It became a single point for delivery of all child protection services in the district. The benefits included enhanced visibility of all three institutions, quicker response to any issue of child rights violation, better coordination, convergence of resources etc.

Delhi High Court Directs Linking of JJ System with Birth Registration

Taking suo moto cognisance of data received on number of children lodged in Tihar jail following an RTI application filed by HAQ: Centre for Child Rights, the Delhi High Court initiated a Public Interest Litigation (PIL) to look into and correct the situation and pass appropriate directions for various authorities involved. In a step of far reaching consequences for millions of disadvantaged children in the Capital and other states of India, the Delhi High Court linked the Birth Registration System with the Juvenile Justice Administration System by holding that once the age of the child has been determined by the CWC or the JJB, the order should be used to get a birth certificate issued for the child so that this can become a proof of their age for the future. State Special Home for CCL in Summanahalli, Bangalore

The ECHO Special Home for CCL is the first one in India to be run by a voluntary organisation. It focuses on the overall development of the child through individual care and attention – which helps them become better human beings – and a variety of educational, vocational and agricultural activities. Services to mainstream CCL are:

- ◆ Life orientation: is conducted regularly for psycho-social engagement.
- ◆ Career guidance: to orient children towards contributing positively to society.
- ◆ Personality development programmes: to enable the children to enhance their functional ability and civic sense.
- ◆ Yoga and meditation: to improve deviant and aggressive behaviour.
- ◆ Counselling and guidance: to resolve psychological issues through therapy.

- ◆ Therapeutic treatment: in the form of dance, music, theatre and art.
- ◆ Formal and non-formal education: at primary and higher secondary levels in addition to the KOS (Karnataka Open School) exam (Xth boards). A few children also pursue undergraduate studies at recognised universities in Bengaluru.
- ◆ Vocational training: such as computer skills, farming, ITI, tailoring, screen-printing, driving etc. that equips them for the post-institutional life.
- ◆ Life skills education: helps them understand the ethos and ethics of human life and better adapt to society.
- ◆ Bala Panchayat: offers a platform for participation in decision making and familiarises them with ownership and civic responsibility.
- ◆ Traffic Police Assistance Programme (TPAP): This programme, initiated by ECHO in cooperation with the Department of Police, aims to transform CCL into responsible members of society through law enforcement. Former lawbreakers become law enforcers and earn their own living.
- ◆ Institutional Setup Transitional Homes at Bengaluru, Mysore and Cochin: These homes are established for delivering reformatory programmes to CCL and for their care and protection.
- ◆ Rehabilitation Centre: This centre is dedicated to complete rehabilitation in terms of education, vocational training, job placements of the children etc.

BAL MITRAS – Friends of Children in Uttar Pradesh

Issue/Challenge: Cases of poor living conditions and low standards of service at Children’s Homes have been highlighted recently. Regular support is required to maintain the standards of Children’s Homes and facilities. This support can also be garnered from outside the formal system. Rule 78 (3) says that CCI shall encourage active involvement of the local community and corporates in improving institutional conditions supporting children. This provision is not being utilised, even though there are individuals wanting to extend support and CCI requiring the same. The issue is one of bridging the gap successfully.

Innovative step: Government of Uttar Pradesh identified individuals to bridge this gap. These Bal Mitras (literally Friends of Children) can be retired or serving officers, employees, doctors, educationists, students, industrialists, social organisations, and social workers. Their credentials were verified by the District Probation Officer and they were issued Identity Cards signed by the District Magistrate. Through this innovative step, medical camps, therapy sessions, individual tuitions, sessions on Art of Living, group counselling and recreational and sports activities and many such other programmes/activities can be organised. These help CCI inmates in skill development, behavioural change, getting admission to regular schools, economic gain and in the creation of a transparent environment.
